The Peace Path provides a firm circular clifftop route with a view of the lighthouse. Wheelchair accessible but in some parts, cambers can be awkward and narrow because the path follows the downland contours.

2. What you can see and do along Eastbourne Promenades – Helen Garden to Sovereign Harbour

Dotto Train will take you from the Holywell to Harbour Reach on a circular route, with stops on the way. Part of the route is on the road, the rest along the Promenade, walkers beware. Run by Stagecoach, timetable available from Seafront Office 01323 410611. Has a ramp to take small manual wheelchair user in rear carriage. Planning to run Saturday, Sunday and Bank holidays from 1st May to 27th June, then daily through to 3rd September 2021.

Wheelchair Accessible Toilets & Changing Places. There are public wheelchair accessible toilets opened with a Radar key (National Key Scheme) at Helen Gardens (rear of pavilion), Holywell (Lower Promenade). Bandstand (Middle and lower Promenade), Pier (Lower Promenade), Redoubt Bowling Pavilion, Fisherman's Green and Langney Point.

Changing Places toilet facility on Middle Prom at The Bandstand. Residents can apply for their own key, membership form on Council website or visit The Seafront Office on Lower Prom.

Helen Gardens Children's play area, bowls, putting course, petanque, koisk and toilets. Lots of seating, sheltered by hedges. Access from main road King Edwards Parade. Mainly level pathways and grass areas. Great views of the Downs and sea. Street parking.

Italian Gardens is a secret hideaway at Holywell below Helen Gardens. Access from the main road is via a steep slope or less steep from the promenade (not good for manual wheelchairs or some powerchairs). These unusual and secluded lawned gardens sit in a wooded amphitheatre carved out of the cliff face just yards from Holywell beach and Holywell Tea Chalet. They have open air theatre performances here. The main garden area is level.

Holywell area has three promenades levels. The main pathway runs along the King Edwards Parade, the middle promenade is mainly gravel, then there is the Lower Level Promenade along beach edge to the beach huts, public toilets and Holywell Tea Chalet 01323 410220 open daily. There is access to the different promenades via steps/slopes at different points, not all are accessible for wheelchairs.

Ramps for wheelchairs / buggies that lead to the Lower Promenade are found near the Wish Tower, Bandstand and Pier. You can travel on this lower level to the Holywell end (Beachy Head) where there are public toilets including accessible one and Holywell Tea Chalet. In the other direction you can travel all the way to Sovereign Harbour.

The Western Lawns are used for special events during the year eg 999 display, Magnificent Motors, Beer Festivals, Airborne. Grassed area with many seats, ideal for picnics.

The historic Martello Tower No. 73, known locally as the Wish Tower opens for tours by Wish Tower Friends, see website for details www.wishtower.org.uk. Only accessible by steps leading up into the tower.

Lifeguard Beach Station and first aid post. 01323 412290. Lifeguards are on duty from 1 May to 30 September. Offer Kidzone colour coded wristband system.

Beach huts can be hired yearly, monthly, weekly, daily. Those which are available for casual hire are fully accessible with decking and are located next to the Lifeguard's station. Contact Seafront Office on 01323 410611.

Deckchairs can be hired from the Pier to Wish Tower during the season.

Three Wooden pathways across the beach for wheelchair, mobility aid users and children's buggies. The Jan Gould Way is by the lifeguard station, there is a small area where you can sit. The other two are either side of the bandstand. These offer a chance for wheelchair and mobility aid users to access the beach to high tide level.

Cafes and Refreshment kiosks, there are three cafes along on the Lower Promenade between the Lifeguard Station and Pier offering limited indoor and more outside seating on decking over the beach. Refreshment kiosks are located along the middle and lower proms. Many of the hotels along the seafront are open to non-residents some have wheelchair access as do some restaurants. (see our separate list of ideas where to eat out).

The Bandstand Grand Parade, BN21 3AD. 01323 410611. www.eastbournebandstand.co.uk. Offers a varied programme of concerts for all ages. Wheelchair accessible. Accessible toilets on Lower and Middle proms, access via radar key. Changing Places toilet facility on Middle prom - residents can apply for their own key, membership form on Council website or visit The Seafront Office on Lower Prom. Some blue badge spaces along King Edwards Parade (beach side).

Carpet Gardens are the centre piece of Eastbourne Promenade between the Pier and Bandstand. Famous seasonal floral display. Get your camera ready!

The Pier, a popular Victoria Pier has free entry, accessible from road level. Coffee shop and Chippy at the front, gift shops, candy shop, glass blowing shop, state of the art Arcade, bar serving drinks and food with live music with outside seating, some are wheelchair accessible.

Open top Eastbourne Sightseeing bus 01273 510181 from the Pier departs every 30 minutes. Operates daily 30th March to October runs every 30 minutes, 10am to 5pm every day. Ring about accessibility as some vintage buses are used. The modern buses are fully accessible.
